TIM PALM

Newly graduated MSc with 15+ years of sales experience

PROFILE

Results-driven sales professional with over 15 years of experience in complex solution selling across hardware, software and services. Specialized in building long-term client relationships and delivering measurable business impact for enterprise customers across the Nordics.

I combine deep commercial experience with a Master's degree in IT Management, offering a distinctive profile at the intersection of sales, business development and digital transformation.

STUDIES

Master of Science in Informatics: Data-Driven IT Management

University of Borås · 2025 – 2026

One-year Master's programme focused on IT governance, change management, process optimization and data-driven decision-making in organizations. Current research applies Grounded Theory methodology to examine how Swedish higher education institutions select and implement digital meeting platforms. The goal is a publication of the study's result.

BSc Business Administration: Enterprising & Business Development

Linnaeus University · 2018 – 2021

Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a specialization in Entrepreneurship and Business Development. The programme combined strategic, organizational and leadership theory with hands-on application — including a consulting engagement with one of Växjö's most prominent companies, producing research and analysis that laid the foundation for real-world business development initiatives. Includes an Erasmus semester at INSEEC Grande École in Paris, specialising in International Management (2020).

EXPERIENCE
